

SHENANDOAH VALLEY QUILTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER

President's Message

It was so nice to see everyone at the March meeting! Congratulations to everyone for the 96 quilts we were able to donate to the local hospice organizations. When my husband was in the hospital I brought a quilt in and placed it at the foot of his bed. It was helpful in so many ways. Not only did it remind him of home, but also it provided a neutral conversation starter when staff came into his room. They would ask about the quilt or the dog on the quilt or who made it. In an environment where most of the conversation is about pain, meds and procedures, it was a nice diversion. I'm sure our gifts go a long way in easing difficult situations for many.

Congratulations to Lenore Mitchell who is hosting the traveling basket this month! I hope you enjoy the visit!

I'd like to give a big thank you to Josephine Millett who has agreed to be the SVQG/Virginia Quilt Museum liaison. It was recommended that we have a person designated to communicate between the museum and the guild and Josephine gladly agreed to be our person.

Thank you to all those who entered the President's challenge: Josephine Millett, Cerise Haas, Deborah Richardson, Dorice Graham, Vicki Graham, Lori Abbott-Herrick, Ofilia Seidell, Jan Hood, Gail Oliver and Molly Toth. And congratulations to our winner Jan Hood. I really enjoyed seeing everyone's interpretation of the thrift store top originally donated by Debbie Hendricks.

Lastly, just a reminder to bring your silent auction items to our next meeting, April 16th. It's time to move full speed into quilt show mode! See you then!

Nina Jackson, President

Secretary Minutes from March 19, 2016 General Meeting

The March SVQG meeting was called to order by president Nina Jackson. We had two visitors: Hospice representatives Sue Jarvis from Blue Ridge and Peggy Brubaker from Sentara.

Nina handed out TOY blocks to everyone present to celebrate National Quilt Day.

Nina's President's challenge was to make a quilt inspired by a found quilt top, which Nina finished. There were 11 entries. Those present voted on their favorite and Jan Hood won with her beautiful appliquéd quilt.

The Treasurer reported that the quilt raffle sales and vendor receipts from 2015 were moved to the 2016 budget so all Quilt Show finances would be reported in the same year. Also, raffle tickets at MidAtlantic Quilt Show brought in $751. Thank you volunteers who manned the booth at the show. The balance of our CD and checking account is $9,663.21.

Connie Broy reported about Mary Carlton and said that she would collect 2018 raffle quilt blocks.

For the silent auction at the quilt show, please bring items to sell to the April and May meetings.

Bev London reported that the April program will be by Debbie Kratovil. The morning program will be "The Naked Quilter" and the workshop will be the Seven Sisters pattern without Y-seams.

Mount Jackson Art Center will be having a quilt show in July. They are looking for quilts that can be sold. More information and entry forms can be found on our website.

The PHD to work on next is #4.

Lenore Mitchell won the traveling basket.

Cottonwood and Patchwork Plus provided door prizes. The Easter bunny handed out eggs. Anyone who had a black jellybean got a door prize.

Denise Rudolph reported on the Quilt Show. Postcards are ready and Gail Oliver will hand them out next month. Don't forget to bring items for the Boutique to sell. Cheryl Hawes will photograph the quilts. She needs an assistant. May 1 is the deadline for quilt entries. The categories will also include the Quilt Show theme, Challenge Quilts and President's Quilts. Order SVQG shirts from Denise. They are $17.

We handed out 96 quilts (15 Patriotic) and 8 dolls to our hospice groups.

Respectfully submitted by Kathy Christy, Kind Volunteer.

May 21st Guild Meeting

Debe Thomas will present a program "Journey into Curves and Circles" followed by a workshop where we will learn how to sew curves the easy way.

Membership

It's time to renew your Guild membership! The dues will remain at $20 for this period; and $32 for those wanting newsletter sent by postal mail. The following dues year will be February 1, 2017 through January 31, 2018.

Happy Quilting!

Programs

A big thank you to Denise for hosting and offering the afternoon sewing for the Service Quilting Program. Denise is heavily involved in guild service programs and dedicates a lot of time quilting, putting together kits, dog beds and many other things. Thank you Denise for all you do!

In April Debby Kratovil will be giving the morning program and an afternoon workshop. Her lecture is called “The Naked Quilter.” Sorry, this will not be a risqué event but rather an inside look at the mindset of a prolific author and pattern and fabric designer.

Debby describes her workshop on her website. “Program: The Naked Quilter: What goes on inside the head of a published quilt author? You ask, “How did she take that simple block and get where she did in that fabulous and fun quilt?” And, more importantly, how in the world did she get published in the first place? With more than 22 years as a published author, Debby also designs patterns and quilt samples for major fabric companies. Her quilts have appeared on more than 2 dozen quilt magazine covers over the years and she isn’t finished yet! In her lecture and trunk show she will “get naked” with all her secrets for making quilts that continue to grace the pages of magazines and books. If your Walter Mitty dream is to see your own creations get a chance to appear in print, come hear Debby’s lively lecture and learn the inside scoop on how to take the next step.”

<http://www.quilterbydesign.com/programs.html>

Debby’s afternoon workshop is a traditional pattern with painless construction techniques. She describes this workshop on her website as well. “Workshop: Seven Sisters without y-seams! Go traditional or modern, this pattern has been updated by eliminating those pesky y-seams. All patches are cut using a multi-sized 60-degree ruler. Make a 37" x 42" table topper using only 3-1/2" and 6-1/2" strips. Make it scrappy or have a controlled palette.”

What a great March meeting!!!! We collected and gave out 96 lap quilts and 8 dolls with quilts!!!! We had representatives from Sentara and Blue Ridge to speak to us. Augusta Health was unable to come but they did receive quilts and dolls. We did not stay afterwards and sew due to the snow!!! At least it waited until after the main meeting.

Thank you all for your support. Our next collection will be in June – we will display service quilts at the show and then disperse them afterward. Use the April shower time to sew up at top or two!!!

Denise Rudolph, Service Chair

P.S. I didn't even put my usual WOW in here but are you not an awesome giving group!!!!

The Bodacious Bumble BEE had a successful year in 2015. We made many service quilts and pillows for various organizations including Our Community Place; Wrap a Smile, and the guild's hospice, Samantha Doll, Christmas stockings, and dog pillow projects. In addition, the group made and donated fifty-three lap quilts and eleven pillows with cases to the Valley Program for Aging Services' Meals on Wheels program (VPAS). The group has also completed a queen size raffle quilt for VPAS to use as a fundraiser this year. A highpoint of the year was a combined meeting with the Eager BEEvers at the Shenandoah River Merck Pavilion in June. We also met one month at Ragtime Fabrics in their new shop.

The BEE continues to meet monthly on the fourth Thursday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in members' homes. Members of the BEE include Joyce Aigner, B.J. Berlo, Barbara Cline, Jane Crockett, Vicki Graham, Nina Jackson, and Gail Oliver. Our group service project for 2016 is to make lap quilts for Augusta County social services clients and the dental free clinic.

The Threads That Bind Us

15th Biennial Quilt Show

June 25th and 26th, 2016

I am writing this on March 24 and in 3 months we will be setting up for the quilt show!!!

I expected to be bombarded with show entries at the April meeting but I only got one person's forms. We need your creations! For the show to be successful we need to have entries. If you have questions about which category your entry should be in call Denise or Lori and we will help. We will be reviewing the entries once we get them and we may rearrange pieces to fit what entries we have.

Please bring your forms to the April meeting or you can mail or email them to me. If you email please ask for a receipt so that we make sure I get it.

Don't forget your 4" sleeve for those things that are larger than 48" or are heavy. IT MUST BE A MINIMUM OF 4" FOR THE HANGING POLES TO FIT.

The Salvation Army is collecting Christmas fabric for their gift program for senior citizens.

Their Auxiliary will make Christmas bags for their gifts. If you have any quantity (fat quarter or larger) of Christmas fabric that you no longer need, or just have an abundance of, The Salvation Army would love to take it off your hands.

Feel free to bring it with you to the April meeting, I'll be happy to drop it off for you or you can take it/send it to The Salvation Army, (not the Thrift Store), 185 Ashby Avenue, Harrisonburg, VA. 22802.

Quilt Exhibit Opportunity!

BSCAC is looking for quilts that are for sale to be displayed in their gallery in July 2016. They would like to get a commitment for at least 20 pieces, of any size. The room is approximately 16' X 16' with high ceilings, so large quilts are welcome. This show will be open to ANY quilter that would like to be part of it. They do not have to be a guild member. A small reception will be organized to "open" the show - wine, tea, cheese, fruit, etc. Those of us displaying would be responsible for organizing the reception. BSCAC charges a 30% commission so please price accordingly. If you want to show something, but you really don't want to sell it, price it high.

Please contact Bev London, (540) 578-0779 (evenings & weekends only), Email: mc162kinley@yahoo.com if you are interested. Send details of the pieces you would like to exhibit (one registration form per item).

If you would like to see the way BSCAC displays show items I welcome you to attend one of their First Friday's (first Friday of the month) from 7 - 10 PM. Their First Friday's are very informal, bring your favorite beverage (wine, tea, etc.) or some finger food-cheese, crackers, food and come and enjoy the company of others.
