NQA Chapter 383, VA 20

Vol. 26 No. 11

February 2013

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT'S SEWING CORNER -

Dear Friends:

It's unbelievably cold outside this week! I hope you're each either working in a cozy sewing room or snuggled under one of your creations. I think my family appreciates me more in the wintertime when their toes are all covered up in a quilt! How about yours?

Speaking of appreciation...a BIG thank you to Amy Meck, Thurston Bechtel and their helpers for an incredibly successful auction. Amy might just have a future as a stand-up comedienne. Thanks to their humongous (to quote my granddaughter) efforts and your generosity we brought in over $1600!

At the January Guild meeting I announced my President's Ugly Duckling Challenge. Last year the owner of The Cloth Peddler gave the Guild a whole bolt of what she called the "ugliest fabric ever made." Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to take a fat quarter and turn that ugly chick into a beautiful 12 1/2" swan (I mean block). The rules: you can't use it as backing or batting or in lieu of one of your UFOs. Judging will be at the March Guild meeting. If you want a fat quarter before the February meeting I can mail one to you!

And yet another thanks to Fran Miller and Bev London for agreeing to be Committee Chairs with me for our 2014 Quilt Show. Turner Ashby High School on the last weekend in June is where you'll want to be!

Winston Churchill said, "For myself I am an optimist - it does not seem to be much use being anything else".

Looking forward,
Lori Abbott-Herrick
President

December 8, 2012
Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Lori Abbott-Herrick, who welcomed everyone and asked for a round of applause to thank Connie Broy and Sally Jones for their hard work organizing the Christmas brunch and party.

The minutes of the November meeting were approved as printed in the newsletter.

The treasurer's report is available on the guild website.

Announcements

The quilts sent by the Hope Guild were displayed, and a photo of the members of the guild was taken with the quilts.

Vicki Graham will chair the quilt show at VMRC. The quilts will be hung in March and taken down in mid-May, 2013. Vicki distributed forms which should be completed for each piece that members enter. There is room for big and small quilts. Quilts demonstrating the types of work that members do (traditional, modern, applique, full-size, lap size, wall hangings and service quilts) are requested. If members are interested in submitting pieces that are for sale, VMRC does not take a percentage. The deadline for submissions is the February meeting. Lori thanked Vicki for taking on this project for the guild.

Lori read a thank you note from Sentara/Rockingham Hospice.

Jude McLaughlin's husband and John Hammel and Kathy Christy's brother have passed away. Dianne Reasons is at home and recovering from surgery.

The Mid-Atlantic Quilt Festival is February 21-24.

Forty-two blocks have been placed along Rt. 42 of the Shenandoah Valley Quilt Trail between Timberville and Bridgewater.

Lou Emswiler reported that SVQG is featured on the December NQA website. Also, there is an article on the NQA website for anyone interested in sending quilts to victims of Hurricane Sandy.

The March guild program will be service oriented, and members will be sewing string blocks for service quilts. The February class will be "Fabulous Fractures" with Kathy Christy. Don't forget to bring auction items for the January guild auction.

Submitted by Jane Crockett, Secretary

"MINITURES" BEE? -

We've all heard that good things come in small packages. That goes for quilts also! Some of our members are longing to start a new Bee to make "miniature" quilts, creating small blocks up to 6 1/2" square! The really nice thing about tiny quilts is that you don't need a huge stash to make them. In fact, we know people who go trash can diving at classes and retreats to pull out scraps that others deem unusable.

We are in the planning stages and are looking at an evening gathering, probably once a month, with the location to be discussed. If you are interested in joining our "small" group, let us know. Please email either Amy Meck at sirockam@jmu.edu or Diana Norman at dnorman8816@comcast.net with your ideas.

January 19, 2013
Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Lori Abbott-Herrick, who welcomed everyone. Guests were introduced as follows:

Meg Carr, new director of the Virginia Quilt Museum, was introduced by Josephine Millet. She comes from a position at the National Quilt Museum in Paducah, KY. Meg spoke to the guild about her background and interests. VQM volunteers and others interested in volunteering at the museum are invited to come to an open house and show preview on Saturday, Jan. 25 at 1 p.m.

Diane Baker, new member, was introduced by Lori Schrock.

Trudy VanDyke, independent fine art curator, was introduced by Mary Carlton.

Lori led the members in a round of applause thanking Connie Broy and Sally Jones for putting together such a nice Christmas party in December.

Vicki Graham updated the members at the Virginia Mennonite Quilt Exhibit which the guild is presenting from March 2 through May 4, 2013. Quilts should be turned in at the February guild meeting. All sizes of quilts are needed. If you want to sell your piece, please put that on the entry form. VMRC will collect the money, but does not take a percentage. Forms for those wishing to put pieces in the exhibit are available on the information table and will be sent with the newsletter. Volunteers are needed to help set up and take down the exhibit.

Thank you notes have been received from the following organizations:

Emmanuel Episcopal Church Food Pantry - food donated at the Christmas party;
Virginia Quilt Museum - memorial donations for Mary Harrold and Jude McLaughlin's husband.

Fairfield has donated eight king size batts for use for hospice quilts.

Shenandoah Valley Quilt Trail brochures are available on the information table;

Vicki is heading up the nominating committee for next year's officers. Please consider how you might be interested in serving.

Cerise Haas presented the treasurer's report, and it is available on the guild website.

Old Business

The quilt retreat will be May 13-16, 2013 at the Lancaster Host Resort. Thirty one people have signed up. There are four more openings, and the guild needs to fill one more room in order to have free use of the conference room. Please contact Lori if you are interested.

She challenged members to take a fat quarter of this 'ugly' fabric and to make a 12 ½ inch block. Blocks should be brought to the March meeting and will be assembled into a 'swan' quilt as a service project.

PROGRAMS -

February 16, 2013 – FABULOUS FRACTURES – Kathy Christy

This class will be a fun and easy workshop. Also, you will more than likely be able to finish the quilt in class. How wonderful NO UFO for later. The sign-up sheet is attached to the this newsletter and also found in the SVQG Dec/Jan newsletter. You can see some of Brenda Esslinger's fractures on her site at: <http://thegypsyquilter.com>

March 16, 2013 – NATIONAL QUILT DAY – Denise Rudolph

Denise has a lot of wonderful and fun things to do on this national quilting day. Start cutting your fabric strips, and set them aside, for the strip block sewing in the afternoon. We can have a great time sewing and talking and seeing which goes the fastest.

Friday, April 19, 2013 – VIEWPOINTS: A QUILTER'S PERSPECTIVE

"Bring the art of perspective, one of the most important of an artist's tools, to your quilt making as you learn to create the illusion of depth in your work. Learn to make eye catching three-dimensional frames to border your quilts. The simple techniques we study are essential for creating realistic landscapes and interiors. We will practice some exercises in linear perspective, learn about columns and arches, as well as other architectural details." Susan Brittingham.

Saturday, April 20, 2013 – GUILD PROGRAM ADVENTURES IN EMBELLISHMENT

"A presentation designed to stimulate ideas for the embellishment of garments and quilts through various fabric manipulation techniques, machine work and hand stitchery. The trunk show with numerous examples of techniques used in quilts and clothing will encourage viewers to experiment and create on their own." Susan Brittingham

Saturday, April 20, 2013 – UPSIDE-DOWN APPLIQUE

"Add a new machine appliqué technique to your repertoire of quilting skills. Achieve perfect shapes and accurate placement of all your appliqué elements, no matter how small or complex. Use this method to create multi-layered appliqué motifs by machine when you can't or don't want to fuse." Susan Brittingham. You can see more about Susan Brittingham on her website: www.susanbrittingham.com.

Sign-up sheets are in this newsletter or attached to the emailed newsletter. There may be some additional supplies that will be added later. Also, there will be kits for the two classes Susan will be teaching. Will let you know what the cost will be later.

We would like to extend a very special thanks to Denise Rudolph, Bev London, Nancy Harris, and the lovely Morgan for all their help the day of the event!

You are going to love the February Raffle! We will be raffling two Blue Fig brand "Crafter's Totes" at the next guild meeting! These attractive yet functional totes retail for $49 each! We have one in red and one in black! Raffle tickets will be the usual 6 for $5 or $1 each! Get a sneak peak of the totes at: http://www.bluefig.net/Crafters-Tote\_p\_22.html

Thurston and Amy

HOSPITALITY -

Thanks to all the January birthday folks for the delicious refreshments, they provided a lot of energy for bidding. Remember: February Birthday's it is your turn on February 16th, 2013 to share some goodies.

Thanks
Anna Lee

UFO CHALLENGE -

No, friends, this challenge is not rigged! Believe me, if I were somehow able to choose the order of the projects to be done, Projects 1, 2 and 3 are not the ones I would have started with! That said, Project #3 was drawn by our totally unbiased guest at the January meeting. I've sent out reminders to participants with the name of their next project, due March 16, and I understand that some of you are already diligently sewing away. (Maybe I should try this non-procrastination approach? Right!)

FYI - There were more fat quarters handed in for incomplete UFOs this month than beautiful, completed quilts shown. Hmmm.

Happy sewing!
Diana Norman

MEMBERSHIP -

Hooray for the SVQG Auction! I got some nice books and some patterns at a good price and had fun doing it. Amy and Thurston did a super job and I congratulate them. Well done guys.

The membership drive for the 2013-2014 year is now underway. It is still only $20 ($32 if you want your newsletter mailed to you) for a year of fun, learning new things and, best of all, good times with your fellow quilters. Membership also makes a great gift (that's how I got started) for that special neighbor, relative or friend. Remember you don't have to be a quilter to be in the Guild. Only a love of the things we do and the desire to share good times with one another.

You can sign up any time between now and the end of March and your membership will be good until March 31, 2014. Applications will be attached to your email along with this newsletter. Those who receive the newsletter by postal mail will have membership application attached. The application form will also be on our web site at svqg.org. You can either mail your application with your dues or bring it to the next Guild meeting.

Happy Quilting!
John Hammel

VMRC Exhibit Update -

Our exhibit at Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community (VMRC) now has a name, "Quilts, from Shenandoah Valley Quilters Guild". The dates for the VMRC exhibit have changed slightly. We will be installing the exhibit on the first Saturday in March (3/2/2013) and taking it down on the first Saturday in May (5/4/2013). Please be sure that each item you wish to include in the exhibit has a label on the back, a sleeve for hanging and a completed entry form. The label should include your name and the name of the piece. The sleeves should be 4 inches wide on the large pieces that will be hung from The Guild's show racks. Smaller pieces need to have a dowel the width of the piece included with them. We will be mounting the dowels over nails to hang them from the walls. Entry forms are available in this newsletter. I hope everyone has chosen a quilt or two to share in the exhibit. If you are interested in helping with this exhibit, or have quilts to display please contact me at 540-433-9877 or grahamvl@comcast.net.

Vicki L. Graham
President-Elect
