PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Holiday time is upon us with the hustle and bustle just beginning. However, there are the most organized of us who are half way through holiday shopping, have planned all the festivities for November and December and just have a little to go to complete everything except the food preparation and perhaps a little home decorating. Kudos to those who fall into this category! As for me I am just in the beginning stage (thinking mostly). Somehow with the help of my better half I pull it off each year, with a little “bah humbug”, on my part, thrown in for good measure. Didn't we just celebrate the holidays a month ago, where does the time fly?

Speaking about time flying, our November Guild meeting is just around the corner with a wonderful visit from VQM Director, Judith Shuey and a mini VQM Gift Shop to help us with our holiday shopping. The gift of giving is there for all who want to participate with our November Service Workshop. This service project is to help the guild reach the goal of 350 Comfort Pillows and Totes. It is a time to work, share, laugh, learn and get to know your fellow guild members while giving to your community. Each helping hand will bring us that much closer to our goal.

Don't forget that in December we have the guild Christmas party. This is a time for celebrating with guild members, sharing great food and fellowship, while taking a few hours to relax away from our usual busy lives. Our Christmas Party Hosts this year will be the Free Spirits Art Bee. As usual our parties always have a few surprises. If you have an early visitor for the holidays on this date don't let that stop you from coming, just add a little more to your holiday dish and bring them along to share in the fun.

As we reflect on the happenings during the past year, and think about our resolutions and goals for the year coming, remember all the blessings that have been bestowed on each and every one of us during 2010. You, our guild, are one of my blessings. Thank you for sharing your quilting knowledge and talent with your fellow guild members. To guide new quilters on their learning journey keeps quilting alive for generations to come. Happy Holidays to all and to all a good..... (well you know the rest of the story)!!

Your President,
Sandie Hammel

PROGRAMS

The November program has a variety of activities. Our morning program follows the business meeting with a guest speaker, Judith Shuey, Director of the Virginia Quilt Museum. She will update us on the current quilt collection, the operations and outreach of the museum, and volunteer opportunities. Dianne Reasons and Josephine Millett, Museum Gift Shop managers, will bring gift shop merchandise and we'll be able to shop at the end of Judith's presentation. Christmas shopping is in order and the Museum will benefit.

The afternoon activity will focus on our Service Project—making Breast Cancer Comfort Pillows and Totes for the local hospitals. For years Sue Jones has managed this guild program and we are pleased to provide an opportunity for you to join her this year for an afternoon of fellowship and service. Elsewhere in this newsletter Sue will give more details about the kits provided and supplies for you to bring. We will have a group lunch with soups provided and we ask you to bring rolls, or cheese and crackers, or fruits. Tea, coffee, and water will be available.

Some of us have made pillows and totes through the years but this year we would like to spend some time to demonstrate the process (it really is simpler than reading the directions!) and pair the less-experienced with the more-experienced for the afternoon. We hope you will not feel hesitant to come and be a part of this worthwhile program just because you haven't had a chance to learn the process. If you can turn pillows/totes and press we need you!! We will have lots of helpers too. The Service Committee members (Sue Jones, Dorice Graham, Pauline Messier, Sandie Hammel, Carolyn Shank, and Fran) are preparing kits and planning to make this an enjoyable and productive time.

The December 11th program is our traditional Christmas Celebration and being planned by the Art Bee. Remember to go to Bridgewater Town Hall for this program. Look for details elsewhere in the newsletter. And looking ahead to January 15, 2011--- we'll have the fun auction, organized by Denise Rudolph, Chairman of Ways and Means.

Also in this newsletter you will find a questionnaire intended to explore your interest in a guild retreat and/or a guild trip. If you think this is something you would enjoy, please give us some feedback through this questionnaire.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY QUILTERS GUILD MEETING

Minutes - October 16, 2010

The meeting was called to order by President Sandie Hammel who welcomed everyone. She asked that committee reports be as short as possible since we have a busy morning. The minutes of the September meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter. The Treasurer's Report was read and filed for audit.

PROGRAM: Fran Miller introduced Augusta Cole who will be presenting the program today. In November the director of the Virginia Quilt Museum will be presenting a lecture and a "shop" will be set up by Diane Reasons and Josephine Millett to sell items from the VQM store to benefit the museum. In the afternoon we will be making pillows and totes for the service project.

HOSPITALITY: Pauline Messier announced that we have a new coffeepot. She is serving decaf coffee today and hot water is available in the second pot. Please let her know if this is agreeable to you.

MEMBERSHIP: Sandie passed information from John that this is a good time of the year to invite friends to join. Dues are reduced after September and are not renewed until April 1st.

LIBRARY: Kathy Christy showed the 20 new books the guild has acquired; she announced that she would be going to Houston for the International Quilt Show. She asked members to let her know if there are specific types of books that they would like the guild to buy.

PUBLICITY: Lou Emswiler sent notification of the meeting to local newspapers in the Valley. Please let her know if an announcement is included in your local newspaper. She would appreciate a copy of the announcement.

SUNSHINE: Carolyn Shank happily said that only birthday cards were sent during the past month. Let her know of any other reason to send TOY cards.

WAYS AND MEANS: Door prizes were given out. There will be a raffle after break time and members were encouraged to buy raffle tickets.

Visitors were introduced and presented with gifts.

2012 QUILT SHOW: Connie Broy, Co-Chair, brought the new raffle quilt and asked everyone to bind five inches each. The quilt will go to the NQS Show and she asked members to think of a name for the quilt. A questionnaire was included in the Newsletter and she brought extra copies for those who forgot theirs.

QUILT MUSEUM: Josephine Millett mentioned that the exhibit at the Virginia Quilt Museum has changed. Barbara Cline's new book is for sale at the museum. Diane Reasons announced that the next Virginia Consortium of Quilters' meeting will be in Martinsville on November 13th. There will be a Quilt Show the evening before and classes and the meeting will be held at the Dutch Inn.

ROUND ROBIN: Mary Carlton announced that the next exchange for participants in the Round Robin will be in December. Two participants were not here today.

SERVICE: Sue Jones spoke about Breast Cancer Month (October). We have made 350 pillows and totes, our goal for the year. Next month we will be sewing and putting together pillows and totes for our service meeting. Last week 25 were donated to Augusta Health and Denise will take 50 to Winchester.

Anneka Dean from the American Cancer Society spoke about what they are doing and the services they provide to patients. In 2009 207,000 women and 1970 men were diagnosed with breast cancer. There is a 98% survival rate after five years.

Sandie introduced Wendell Coleman, Volunteer Coordinator from the Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Organizations at the Center. Cerise Haas, Treasurer, presented him with a check representing the donation by the Guild and the shared profit from the ticket sales for the 2010 raffle quilt. Mr. Coleman thanked the Guild for their generosity and interest in the Center. The money will go to provide services not covered by the State to students.

Show and tell included the new raffle quilt and was enjoyed by all.

Following a break, Augusta Cole gave a presentation on "Tricks, Tips, and Tidbits." She gave a workshop on Friday on the Curved Log Cabin; this afternoon there will be a workshop on "Snappy Scrappy Fat Quarters." We were all reminded why Augusta is one of our favorite teachers!

Secretary

MEMBERSHIP

We are halfway through our membership year. It has been a good time so far with many more special meetings to come until the next membership year begins in April 2011.

With the recent changes to the by-laws, now is the perfect time to bring in new members, or even bring back some former members. Anyone can join SVQG for the remainder of the 2010-2011 membership year for only $10.00. They will have all the benefits and privileges of membership through March 2011.

So go out and help build our Guild by recruiting some new members. Our Guild will be stronger for it and that person will become a part of a pretty neat organization.

Remember, full 2010-2011 Membership for only $10.00!

See John Hammel or any of the board members for details.

Happy Quilting!

2012 RAFFLE QUILT

Wasn't it beautiful when you saw it at Guild meeting in October? Our 2012 Raffle Quilt that is! Bonnie Spoon did an absolutely fantastic job on the quilting and now all guild members have the opportunity to help sew the binding in place. We will be able to say that this quilt has truly been made by the members of the SVQG.

Some beginning discussion was held as to naming the quilt and we will follow this up at our November meeting and vote on it in either December or January. Then we are going to enter it into at least one quilt competition. How exciting it would be if our quilt were to receive a ribbon! It would definitely increase the value and that would make selling the raffle tickets a bit easier.

We will also be entertaining suggestions as to the organization (s) that would receive a portion of the profit. Guild members should start thinking about this at this time. We will discuss organization(s) in the spring of 2011, which would give us time to have our raffle tickets printed up during the summer.

HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

Get ready for some holiday fun on Saturday, Dec. 11th at 9:30 am (the second Sat. of the month). The December meeting of The Guild will take place at the Arey Meeting Hall in the Bridgewater Community Center. We would like each member to bring a wonderful side dish or a fabulous dessert. Meats and drinks will be provided.

In lieu of a gift exchange, we will be collecting food for the local food pantry and toys for "Toys for Tots". This will be our way of sharing the holiday spirit with our community. You may contribute to one or both of these as you like and we will make sure they are delivered.

We will have musical entertainment and a special contest -- It is party time! We love to dress up for holidays, don't we? This year we are going to celebrate the season by having a contest--we will be giving out prizes for our holiday outfits. It will be a viewer's choice for the three categories of Sweaters, Vests and Sweatshirts. So wear your fanciest or wildest or prettiest or craziest sweater or vest or sweatshirt. If you don't have one--make one! We will be the most festive looking group around! See you on December 11th!

SUNSHINE

Just a reminder to let me know of any guild member who could use our get well wishes, sympathy thoughts, etc. Call me at 540-867-9486 or email me at ceshank@juno.com.

Carolyn Shank

Barb Lambert passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 19th. She was only a guild member for a year or two several years ago. Many of us knew her because she was the store manager at Shenandoah Sew and Vac and she started the Quilters Cabin there. And we are grateful to her for this little quilt shop in Woodstock. The Quilters Cabin has had a vendor booth at our last two quilt shows and Barb was responsible for that.

Mary

WAYS & MEANS

Thanks to everyone who supported the October raffle of my UFO converted to a fall bag!!! We raised $96 and Pat Albaugh was the winner.

Remember we have the auction coming up this winter so be thinking what you want to donate to the quild.

Denise Rudolph

ROUND ROBIN

Last Saturday we all picked up our next round robins. We've looked at them and some of us know exactly what we're going to do with them and some of us wonder what we could possibly do. We'll all figure it out by December and we'll all have done something absolutely wonderful. Holidays coming up, get this done now before you're in a big rush. Next exchange is at the December Christmas Party.

COMFORT PILLOWS/TOTES

We donated 25 pillows & totes to Augusta Health and 50 to Winchester in October. You donated 73 p/t at our October meeting! Great job!! We have a total of 107 on hand. So we are well on our way to the goal for the year of 350. You are encouraged to join us at the November service project when we will be making pillows & totes from kits. We will demonstrate the process of making them from kits. After you have made one, the second is much easier. We will provide kits and polyfil to finish the p/t, no cutting necessary. Each kit provides you with a handle, outside fabric and lining, outside pillow fabric, flannel backing and 2 pieces of soft batting. If you would like to sew, bring your machine with walking foot. Irons and ironing boards will be provided. Bring with you: thread (light, dark, neutral), needles, pins, scissors, and thimbles, if you use them. We will have extra supplies on hand. Come join us for an afternoon with friends and fellow quilters to work on a guild service project that is so appreciated by breast cancer patients. If you have questions, please contact me, Sue Jones at 540-949-0872.
