December 2012/January 2013

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT –

Happy Holidays to Y'all!

What a wonderful time of the year, full of secrets, shiny lights, grumpy uncles, inspiring music, yummy foods and HOPE. I pray you are able to find JOY AND PEACE in all the turmoil and reflect upon the important things in life. Like a warm home and a loving family, a country where we're free to speak our minds, the beautiful scenery outside our windows, the ability to help others and all that fabric in our stashes!

I've learned that true happiness comes when we serve others. In the November Guild meeting we were blessed to hear inspirational stories from our Hospice visitors. Did you go home hoping your quilt was the one easing the elderly woman's pain and loneliness or the child's fears? I did. And it made me want to do more. More Hospice quilts, more Wrap-A-Smile quilts, more quilts for A Small Hand Infant Pantry.

We, in and around the Valley, were mostly spared the ravages of Super Storm Sandy but many were not. My oldest son just returned from New Jersey where he shoveled sand from homes, removed moldy drywall from basements and hauled precious possessions-turned-to-trash to the dump. I wanted to go but knew my contribution to manual labor would be minimal. I CAN however, make quilts to keep the cold from families displaced by the storm or to cheer a despairing heart. Will you join me?

The Sandy Quilt Block Drive is calling for "Wonky Log Cabin" blocks. Visit quiltinggallery.com/quilters-fun/sandy-quilt-block-drive/ to register and get instructions. Sew Fun Quilts is calling for "Disappearing 4-Patch" blocks. Visit sewfunquilts-sewmeow.blogspot.com/2012/11/quilt-blocks-for-sandy-victims.html

I am proud to be a member of the Shenandoah Valley Quilt Guild because of the generosity and kindness of its members. If you'd like to make any quilt blocks for the victims of Sandy please bring them to the December Christmas party (December 8th) and we'll mail them together.

Looking forward,
Lori Abbott-Herrick

PROGRAMS

DECEMBER: Christmas Party - December 8, 2012

This will be our Christmas party. We will meet at the Sunnyside Room on the 2nd Saturday, December 8, 2012, at 9:30 a. m. This year we will be doing a brunch and will be eating around 10:15 a.m. Here are some ideas for brunch; egg dishes, meat dishes, muffins, fruit, cheese & crackers, veggie plate, etc.

NO desserts please.

Also, please bring some canned foods for the bags to support food pantries in the south and north. Please remember to check the dates on the cans and boxes, as we cannot accept expired products or weight loss foods. Any questions please call me at 540-335-1039 or email: at clbroy@shentel.net.

JANUARY: AUCTION - January 19, 2013

If we all start now collecting items for the auction, we will all have a nice neat sewing area by the time January arrives. One nice thing, Amy said she will be glad to take the items at the December meeting. This will help her out a lot and she won't be so swamped at the last minute.

You can call Amy at 540-564-0901 or email her at: sirockam@jmu.edu.

FEBRUARY: FABULOUS FRACTURES – Kathy Christy - February 16, 2013

This class will be a fun and easy workshop. Also, you will more than likely be able to finish the quilt in class. How wonderful NO UFO for later. The sign-up sheet is in this newsletter. You can see some of Brenda Esslinger's fractures on her site at: <http://thegypsyquilter.com>

VMRC EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY -

Virginia Mennonite Retirement Community (VMRC) has offered The Guild the opportunity of displaying our quilts this spring. Please take a look at what you are currently working on or quilts you have previously completed and choose a few to show the public. We'd like to have a range of various types of quilts to exhibit so that the interests of all our members are represented. The exhibit will open in March 2013 and be open to the public until mid-May. If you are interested in helping with this exhibit, or have quilts to display please contact me at 540-433-9877 or grahamvl@comcast.net. Further information will be available in the next newsletter.

President-Elect

SERVICE -

A big thank you to all who contributed to the meeting on November!!! We collected 11 dolls and 30 quilts for Hospice!!! The Hospice representatives were very happy as they left with all their goodies. In the afternoon, we had a small group that stayed and sewed patriotic 4 patch blocks. I have some blocks left over and will put these in kits. I also have tops that need to be quilted. I will have these to give out in January. I know everyone will be busy in December!!!

Start sewing on those scrappy string quilt blocks. They should be 8 ½". They will be a finished 8" block when sewn. I warn they are addictive. We made 79 blocks over the Thanksgiving holiday when my sisters and mother got together. We had an assembly line going!!! Each quilt takes 35 blocks. We will be putting these together in March. I kept saying April at the November meeting but Connie set me straight!!! Everyone should be able to make at least one block.

Always sewing,
Denise Rudolph

HOSPITALITY -

Thanks to everyone for the goodies in November. December will be our Christmas Brunch planned by Connie Broy, Program Coordinator. Please read your newsletter for the plans. January birthdays will have refreshments on Auction Day, January 19, 2013.

Thanks,
Anna Lee Newman

WAYS and MEANS -

Raffles: Thank you so much for participating in our monthly raffles! We are excited to report these total amounts made each month: September: $78, October: $84 and November: $97. No raffle for December and January but look for another exciting round of raffle items in February!

Bragging Rights: The brag jar seemed to be a big hit and it was great to hear everyone's wonderful news! We brought in $18 for the guild. Look for the brag jar again in months to come!

January Auction: The annual Guild auction is set for the January meeting. To refresh our collective memories: Who donates: all members are welcomed and encouraged to donate gently loved or even never used sewing, quilting and crafting items. Auction Item Ideas: Have a quilt top you are never going to finish? Have a box of orphan blocks looking for a good home? Do you have more thread or other notions than you could possibly use in a lifetime? Is there a quilting or crafting book that maybe you aren't enjoying as much anymore or would like to pass on to someone else? Have some fabric in your stash that you think needs a good home? These are only some ideas! Preparing your donation: It's always great when items are bundled with some ribbon or gathered in a basket or a pretty bag so if you have a basket or gift bag if possible. Most importantly: make sure to include some sort of handwritten or typed description of your donation! This is extremely helpful when it comes time to auction off your treasure. When do I bring my item(s) in: You can bring your items to the December meeting, you can contact Thurston or Amy to arrange a different time for a drop off or pick up! You can also bring your donation with you the day of the auction when we will be assigning numbers to each item to be auctioned off. If you have any questions at all please contact Thurston or Amy!

MEMBERSHIP -

The Christmas season is upon us once again. I know because I heard my first Christmas song yesterday. It was Jingle Bells by the barking dogs. Put me right in the old Christmas spirit. Maybe someone will sing it or bring their dog and have it performed for us at the Christmas Party!

Know of any past members or of any new member prospects, remind them that that they can join for the rest of the 2012-2013 membership year for only $10 (instead of the normal $20). It's a great bargain considering all the events still to come. Application blanks may be picked up at the Guild meeting or found on our website svqg.org. Giving a SVQG membership is also a great Christmas gift!!

At the January meeting I will have the applications for the 2013-2014 Membership year. It isn't due until the end of March but if you want to get it out of the way, I'll be more than happy to accept it.

I send wishes to all of you for a very Merry Holiday Season and a Happy New Year from my house to yours.

Happy quilting,
John Hammel

SUNSHINE - submitted by Sue Jones

Please notify me if you know a guild member who has been ill or could use "cheering up". We'll send a TOY card and block. Contact me (Sue Jones) at 540-949-0872 or dejbowsandskjquilts@hotmail.com

NEWSLETTER -

The deadline for the next newsletter will be Friday, January 25th.

Please remember that all members may submit an article that could be included in the newsletter. The Board and Committee Chairs have first space with information for the guild, but there is usually space for tips, recipes, Bee information, etc. The only limitation that we have is to 10 pages, because of postage. Other than that I would love to have some items from the membership that I could add to the newsletter when space allows.

I have heard that a few of the mailed newsletters are not being received or are torn when received. I will try to add some extra tape to help with this problem. If you are one of those who are having a problem please let me know. Also, there are a few copies available at each guild meeting, so if you need a replacement please pick up a copy there. Also a copy of the newsletter is available from our web site at svqg.org.

Hope that each of you has a wonderful Holiday filled with family and friends,
Sandie Hammel

RECIPE -

Sweet Potato Puffs

Lori Abbott-Herrick

- 2 cups flour
- ½ tsp. salt
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 4 Tbs. shortening

Cut shortening into dry ingredients. Dribble milk into mixture until dough is to rolling consistency (2 Tbs. at a time).

- 4 Tbs. raw sugar
- 1 cup mashed sweet potatoes
(approx. 2 large sweet potatoes boiled, drained and mashed)

Mix together and add to the dough. Knead until smooth.
Roll dough to about ¼" thick on a floured surface. Cut into shapes with a small biscuit cutter.

Bake on parchment paper for 8-10 minutes, 425 degree oven.
Cool 2 minutes then slice open.

When cooled, smear with apple butter or fig preserves. Top with Virginia Country ham and serve. Makes about 3 dozen.

2012 SURVEY SUMMARY - submitted by Lori Schrock

At long last here are the results of the survey! Your list of topics gives me a good foundation of what programs and workshops to schedule. Thank you so much for taking time to send in your ideas.

What the Guild likes and does well is probably not a surprise for anyone. Thank you to each and every one of you for making this happen!

The survey indicates that the ways in which our Guild can do better are largely things each of us can change as individuals and maybe even hold each other accountable. Good manners are always welcome and appreciated. They make us feel good about each other and really enhance the things we all like about the Guild.

We can also create our own social activities outside of Guild meetings. Please feel free to initiate quilt gatherings and invite each other. These can only strengthen the ties we already share. On another note President Lori's quilt retreat is bound to be another exciting and fun opportunity for us to socialize and spend time with each other.

Top 10 Topics by order of interest
