

SHENANDOAH VALLEY QUILTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER

Notes from the President

Dear Quilting Friends,

I hope everyone got the message that the September picnic was cancelled. With Florence threatening Virginia, it seemed wise not to try to have the picnic. Between rain and flooding I think we made the wise decision. But not to worry, we will still have our low country boil at the October meeting at our usual location at Sunnyside. I hope everyone fared well and didn't have any flooded basements or other damage.

For the October Meeting, bring the oldest tool you use in your quilting. It will be interesting to share some stories of older tools and where they came from (mothers/grandmothers). Some of these tools are dear to our hearts.

We will also show off our mystery quilts. Bring your mystery quilts in whatever form they are in: In plastic bags waiting for sewing, a pieced top, or (shock) finished.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone in October, as I was on vacation in August and we did not meet in September. It seems just yesterday I started as President, but I realize I only have October and November meetings as December we have our Christmas Lunch. Time flies.

Doreen

OCTOBER meeting will be a brunch
at our regular meeting in Harrisonburg.
Please bring a dish and enjoy the fun.

Service

November will be the month for service!! We will have the Hospice groups come and talk to us. We will also be doing a collection of quilts at that meeting so we can send them home with lots of quilts and patriotic pillow cases.

I received an email that a patient who had passed away had their quilt draped at the church during the funeral. They were truly touched by the gift of the quilt. These stories just make me want to rush home and start another Hospice quilt. I encourage everyone to help Service in some way. I truly believe that quilters are just the best people!!!

Fran will be showing us a collection of 17 quilts all made from the one block and used 17 different ways to show what you can create with a little imagination and persistence!! It was fun to see what she had done with the border fabric at the August show and tell.

In the afternoon plan to stay and help us sew. Please plan to attend. This is my favorite time when we showcase SERVICE !!!

Picnic Update

Guild Picnic moved to our October meeting ---

So sorry that the September picnic had to be cancelled. Better safe than sorry.

However.....We will have the picnic inside on October 20th. Plan to attend for a "Low Country Boil". Each member is asked to bring a side or dessert. There will be a game with prizes, a demo, and fabric by the pound at our Vendor table. Don't forget Show and Tell. Come join the fun. See you at 9:30 on the 20th of October.

Programs

Bring your Sapphire (mystery) quilts to our October guild meeting. “Kevin the Quilter” will not be there, but I promised to send him some photos for his blog. And don’t forget your dish-to-pass!

Works In Progress (WIP)

Bring September's WIP projects to the October meeting for Show and Tell. The new number will be drawn then with the next project still due in November.

Virginia Quilt Museum

Sept. 18 – New exhibits: “Mountain Mist Quilts – 20th Century Favorites”, “AQSG Basket Quilts”, “Sacred Threads”, “Treasures From the Vault: This is my Name” and “Viva La Difference”.

Sept. 29 – VQM will have a booth at the Harrisonburg International Festival with activities for kids and fun for all.

Oct. 1-14 Quilts About Town: A Downtown Quilt Walk: Visit the museum and then stroll around town to see additional quilts at local businesses.

Oct. 7 – 21 Online Auction. Check the website for info.

Hello, Quilters,

I'm sure most of you know that I'll be moving back to Houston after the first of the year. I can't possibly take all my books and fabric with me, so, I am having a big Indoor Quilt Book and Fabric Sale. The books will be $2 each and fabric will be sold at $2 a pound. I will be open the following four weekends:

Sept 29, 30; Oct 6, 7;

Oct 13, 14 and Oct 20, 21 (after Guild meeting)

I'll be open 10:00-6:00 each day.

The sale will be at my house---506 Third St, Shenandoah, VA

Phone 540-652-8671

I know it is out of the way for nearly everyone, but I hope the prices will compensate.

Thank you for any help you can give me.

Kathy Christy
