

SHENANDOAH VALLEY QUILTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER

Notes from the President

Happy October, Quilters,

Our next meeting will be our service meeting. I am looking forward to seeing all the pillowcases and quilts you have made for our service projects. I am always amazed by the generosity of this guild! Please think about staying after the meeting as we put together more projects for those in need.

I am trying to complete one last project as we complete this year's "Works in Progress" incentive. Not sure I'll make it. I have enjoyed the extra push this has given me to complete some of my languishing projects.

Our final meeting of the year will be our holiday party. This should be a fun time with great food and a fun gift swap!

See you soon,

Debbie Jungling

Minutes

October 19, 2019

President Debbie Jungling called the October meeting of the Shenandoah Valley Quilters Guild (SVQG) to order. There were no visitors present.

Reports:

Treasurer – Nina Jackson presented the Treasurer’s Report.

Virginia Quilt Museum – There is a tea scheduled during the month of December and a winter block challenge is ongoing along with an online auction. The guild quilt show will remain on display through the month of December.

Hospitality – Thanks were expressed for the refreshments provided.

Ways and Means – Bonnie Spoon and Sue Jones – There is a raffle and 4 door prizes for the meeting.

Sunshine – Barbara Paulson – There were 6 birthdays and 1 thinking of you card sent out. It was mentioned that 2 former members recently lost their husbands: Connie Broy and Leslie Bulken.

Service – Denise Rudolph – November will be collection month for hospice quilts. There are kits available for pillows and totes. Scrap batting 8.5” X 11.5” is needed to line the pillows.

Newsletter – Vicki Graham – The newsletter deadline is October 25th at noon.

Membership – John Hammel – 2020 membership drive begins at the end of December. Members may begin renewing their membership now. John will print more brochures to distribute at the local quilt shops. Terri Yonce has asked for SVQG business cards to hand out also.

Program Chair #1 – Cindy Holland. A quilt retreat is planned for Sept 17-19, 2020 at the Massanetta Springs Conference Center. Deposits are being accepted now.

Old Business:

20” blocks will be available for members to sign at the November meeting.

Lori Abbott-Herrick reported that the Christmas Party will be Saturday, December 14 at 11 a.m. at Wood Grill Buffet in Harrisonburg. Each member is responsible for the cost of their own meal, and the guild will cover the tip. Those wishing to participate in a gift exchange should bring a wrapped new gift, valued at $10 (or less).

Debbie Jungling is working on plans for the 2020 Quilt Show. She has asked Denise Rudolph to assist with the layout and Sandie Hammel to help secure Food Trucks.

New Business:

Lori Abbott Herrick agreed to fill the open Publicity role.

November 2019

Sandie Hammel agreed to be the liaison between the guild and the webmaster.

After show and tell and refreshments, there was a program by Trish Brostek.

Respectfully submitted,
Cerise Haas

NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE

We will be voting on the new board members at the November Meeting. A special thanks to all who have remained in offices as this Guild couldn't do it without them. Also a thank you to those who have stepped up to fill vacancies. A shout out to membership as there are two positions that remain vacant President Elect and Programs 2. Please step up should you be willing to help us in 2020. A Board Meeting will be called in Late January to discuss upcoming events for 2020, until then safe travels, see you soon.

Sincerely,

Teresa Yonce

SERVICE

November is Service!!! We will be collecting hospice quilts, pillow/totes, and patriotic pillow cases.

Augusta Health, Sentara and Blue Ridge Hospice representatives will be coming to talk to us and take quilts!!! We will also be having Deanna, Breast Surgery Specialist from Sentara, come and talk about the pillow/totes.

Please plan to stay afterward. We will be cutting out patriotic pillow cases, sewing pillow/totes and working on service quilts. You can bring your machine and sew or your cutting supplies for make the pillow kits. This is a great time to fellowship.

See you on the 16th!!

Sewing for Service!
